It was usual for the Residency to call for the convict labour. Perhaps they did not feel the necessity for the same from 1924. There is no objection for sending 15 convicts to the Residency, if they now desire.

Some years back convicts were being sent from the Central Jail, Bangalore to the Residency for extra-mural work, but since 1924 this has been stopped.

I may mention for your information that as per the provisions of the Mysore Jail Manual, we can send to the Residency not more than 15 convicts per day for extra-mural work at a nominal charge of 0-4-0 per head per diem.

May I know if the Residency now require the services of convicts from the Central Jail, Bangalore ? If so, arrangement will be made to send them on the terms noted above, for work at the Residency.

A line in reply will oblige.
